BRANNEN CASE POSTPONED.

Judge Twigg and Judge Hines Both Absent.

The case against Eustas Brannen, once convicted of the murder of Jack Ellis, which was to have come up again for trial at the present term of court, has been postponed on account of the absence of attorneys for both sides—Judge Twigg for the prosecution and Judge Hines for the defense.

Judge Hines had business in other courts which made it almost impossible for him to be present at this term of court, and Judge Twigg was detained by the death of his daughter, whose funeral occurred at Augusta Monday afternoon.

Death of Miss Alberti.

Miss Julia Alberti, the 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Alberti, died last Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock after a brief illness. She had been confined to her bed only about ten days, and her death was a surprise to many of the friends of the family, who sympathize with them deeply in their affliction.

The funeral occurred Sunday afternoon, and was from the Methodist church, of which the deceased was a member. The services were attended by a large concourse of friends.

PRIZES WERE AWARDED.

Capital Prize of $1,800 is Won by Bulloch.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 18.—Bulloch county's splendid exhibit of agricultural products at the state fair was today awarded the first prize of $1,800. Bartow came second with an elaborate display, receiving $1,300 as second money. Cobb received the third award of $900. Worth the fourth of $500, DeKalb the fifth of $600, Gordon, Habersham, Camden, Hall, Carroll, the sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth of $300 each, and Rabun and Bibb the eleventh and twelfth of $200 each.

Obituary.

On the evening of July 6th, 1906, the death angel came and bore away our sister, Mrs. Jane Murphy, a member of Clito Baptist church. Her maiden name was Miss Jane Franklin. She was born in Bulloch county, Ga. She was married to Mr. H. Murphy and they lived happily together more than twenty years. As a neighbor she was kind, as a stepmother she was affectionate, as a wife she was true. On visiting even now after her departure we could truthfully apply this proverb, "She loathed well to the ways of her household and eateth not the bread of idleness."

At the time of her death she was 65 years old. She leaves an aged husband to mourn her loss. We commend him to the loving Savior in this hour of sorrow.

BEWARE OF 'POSSUMS.

When Thoroughly Angry They are Pierce as Lions.
(Millen News)

Death from the bite of a 'possum is the fate that overtook young Will Thompson at Indian Springs while out on a 'possum hunt Tuesday night.

Accompanied by a party of half a dozen young men friends he went out in search of 'possums and on the outskirts of Flovilla the dogs treed one and the young men gathered around and hewed at the trunk until it cracked.

As the tree in its fall neared the ground the 'possum sprang from the branches and lighting on the shoulders of Mr. Thompson, buried its teeth in the young man's neck at the base of the brain and crushed his spinal cord, killing him instantly.

The dogs caught the 'possum and killed it in the darkness and excitement it was not noticed that

Mr. Thompson was seriously hurt until members of the party went with torches to raise him from where he had fallen and it was seen that death had ensued from the bite.

SMITH ANSWERS FLEMING.

Says Statement of, Ex-Congressman Is Untrue.

ATLANTA, Oct. 14.—Governor-elect Hoke Smith yesterday afternoon issued a statement in reply to the card of ex-Congressman William H. Fleming, of Augusta, in reference to the disfranchisement issue of the late gubernatorial campaign. The statement is self-explanatory, as follows:

"Ex-Congressman Fleming in his last card addressed to the people of Georgia, referring to my campaign for governor, made the following statement:

"He openly claimed upon the stump his purpose to subvert a part of the federal constitution on the suffrage question by a fraudulent administration of a state law, and give his audiences detailed explanations of how the fraud was to be perpetrated."

"While I do not wish to be involved at this time in a discussion of the issues that were passed on by the people in the recent election, I cannot consent for this statement of Mr. Fleming's to pass unnoticed. 'The statement by Mr. Fleming that I proclaimed upon the stump the purpose to fraudulently administer a proposed state law is untrue. My political opponents placed this false construction upon one of the speeches which I made during the campaign. I at once corrected their charge, and pointed out its want of foundation.

"I advocated legislation similar to that which has been adopted in Alabama, and far from suggesting a fraudulent administration of that legislation, I pointed out that it would provide a legal way to protect the people of Georgia from the possibility of fraud or force in elections.

"I earnestly adhere to the views which I urged during the campaign. I do not entertain a doubt as to the justice, the necessity and the legality of disfranchisement under the Alabama plan, nor do I question the wisdom of such a constitutional amendment. I am convinced that it will operate to the permanent benefit and happiness of both races, and I shall continue to urge with all my power, the enactment of legislation to bring about the disfranchisement of the ignorant and purchasable negroes, in a way that, in my judgment, will stand the test of the highest courts of the land, and will go far towards furnishing a solution of the complexing race problem, without injustice to either, and to the lasting good of both."

BULLOCH TIMES.

ESTABLISHED 1892.—NEW SERIES VOL. 2, No. 33.

STATESBORO, GEORGIA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1906.

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

GRAND JURY WORK

Presentments of Doings at October Term, 1906.

MAKES MANY RECOMMENDATIONS.

Recommends an Appropriation of $25,000 to Secure District Agricultural College.

GEORGIA, BULLOCH COUNTY.

We, the grand jury selected, chosen and sworn to serve at the October term, 1906, of Bulloch Superior court, beg to submit the following report and presentments.

The following is a report of the book committee appointed at the April term, 1906, to examine the books of the various county officers and other property of the county, which we submit as part of our report:

To the Grand Jury Fall Term, Bulloch Superior Court.

We, the committee appointed by the grand jury, Spring term, 1906, to examine the records of the various county officers and the property belonging to the county beg to submit the following report:

1. We have carefully examined the books of the Ordinary and find them to be correctly and neatly kept.
2. We have examined the books of the Treasurer and find them neatly and correctly kept, with the exception that he keeps his personal account and the account of the county together at the Bank of Statesboro.

3. We have made a careful examination of the books kept by the Sheriff and find them neatly and correctly kept. We find that he has no record of city court bonds, and we respectfully recommend that he be furnished with a book for this purpose.

4. We find the records kept by the Sheriff in excellent condition, with the exception that he is behind with the indexing.

5. We have made several examinations of the court house at various times and find the roofing and valleys need repairing in several places. We found the court room, jury rooms and gallery not properly kept by the janitor. We respectfully call the Ordinary's attention to this, and recommend that the various rooms and hall ways be kept in a neater condition. We find that the vaults of the Ordinary's office and of the Clerk's office are not fire proof. Realizing this we recommend that the Ordinary have this defect attended to at once.

6. We have made a thorough examination of the jail and found it in an unsanitary condition. We found the bedding, such as blankets and mattresses, in a very bad condition. They had not been properly aired and washed. We recommend that the jailer have the bedding washed at such times as they may need it, and that he have the mattresses refilled when it becomes necessary for the good health of the jail. We recommend that the jail be thoroughly scourged out every week, and that the water tanks and sinks be repainted.

7. We have made an examination of the various roads worked by the convicts and highly recommend this system to the people of the county.

8. We have made a thorough examination of the convict camp and found the sanitary condition excellent in every particular. We found all the mules worked by the gang well kept and properly cared for. We found mules worked by some of the free gangs not in the best condition. All plows, tools and road materials are in good shape.

9. We visited a good many of the school buildings of the county and found some very creditable buildings and nicely furnished. We find that the county has not the deeds to all the buildings. We recommend that the County School Commissioners get deed to all the property which the county has money invested in, and have all buildings properly insured.

This, Oct. 20th, 1906.

Respectfully submitted,
W. H. BLYDEN,
J. W. WILSON,
Committee.

We have by committee appointed examined the books of the Justices of the Peace and Notaries Public of the various districts and find them in good condition and properly kept. We recommend W. H. Cone to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of J. A. Fulcher on the board of education.

It appearing to the grand jury that the terms of office of the following Notaries Public and ex-officio Justices of the Peace have expired:

A. W. Stewart, 48th G. M. District, M. V. Parish, 1340th G. M. District, W. H. Mitchell, 1340th G. M. District.

We recommend that each succeed himself in this office.

The grand jury having no legal authority to say who are paupers and should receive aid from the county, we refuse to dictate to the board of County Commissioners as to who shall be placed on the pauper list and leave this matter entirely in their control where the law places it. We are satisfied that the board will grant relief and help to all worthy and indigent citizens and not force them to the trouble of coming before the grand jury, thus doing them an injustice and taking unnecessary time of the grand jury.

We recommend that the convict fund be applied to the public schools.

WHEREAS, Under a recent act of the General Assembly of Georgia, an Agricultural College is to be erected in each congressional district of the State, and

WHEREAS, No county in the First district possesses better natural advantages than Bulloch, richer soil, more generous people, nor is any county in the district more entitled to the School than Bulloch, and

WHEREAS, An active effort is being made by a large number of our citizens to have this school located in Bulloch county, and our people are taking an interest in the movement by liberal subscriptions and otherwise, and

WHEREAS, A petition has been presented to our body asking that we recommend the appropriation of some reasonable sum of money to be made by our County Commissioners to aid in this enterprise, and the said petition having been supported by able and convincing arguments made to our body in behalf of the same, and believing that we are acting for the good of the county, and feeling assured that such an institution would be of incalculable benefit and blessing to our common citizenship, as well as present as in the years to come, we, therefore, do hereby recommend that our board of County Commissioners pay out the sum of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) (or more if necessary) for this enterprise if it can be secured for Bulloch county, the payments to be made in such a manner and at such time as the County Commissioners may determine.

We also recommend that the Ordinary call a meeting of our citizens at an early date, in order that this matter may have further consideration and endorsement.

Information having been brought to our attention that it is a practice of drug stores in our county to keep their places of business open on Sunday, we look upon such practice as being an evil to be condemned and promoting a disregard for the sanctity of the Sabbath, as well as the law of the country. We therefore recommend that the county authorities require all drug stores to close their places of business on Sundays, and that, for the benefit of such persons as may find it necessary to buy medicines on Sunday, the owners keep posted on their front doors such notices or placards as will inform the public where the owner or some clerk can be found who can attend their wants.

We appoint W. C. Parker, J. D. Blitch and J. S. Franklin a committee to examine the books and records of the various county officers and the property of the county and make their report to the next grand jury.

We recommend that these general presentments be published in each of the county papers and that five dollars be paid each for the publication of the same.

We recommend that five dollars be paid H. P. Cobb for stenographic services to our body.

In conclusion we wish to express our thanks and appreciation of the forceful charge to our body by His Honor, Judge T. A. Parker, also for the business like manner in which he has despatched the business of the court.

We also extend our thanks to Solicitor General Herrington for his courteous consideration and the promptness in the discharge of all his duties in connection with our service.

W. C. PARKER, Foreman.

D. C. WOODS, Clerk.

MAKE BILLS SMALLER.

Said That it Will Affect Great Saving of Paper.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Among the currency reforms to be recommended by Secretary Shaw, it is said that one will be cutting down the size of the notes issued by the government. Not cutting down the denomination, but the size of the paper used. The notes at present are seven inches long by three inches wide, and it is proposed to reduce them to six inches long by two and a half inches wide.

There will be economy as well as convenience in this. Paper for bank notes is expensive and the cost to the government is quite large. The reduction in the size of the notes will effect quite a saving and it is claimed by bankers the smaller notes will be much more convenient to handle. The experiment of the smaller notes was tried when a currency was provided for the Philippines and it has met with much favor from bankers and others.

MAY GET COMMUTATION.

Rawlings Boys May be Sent to Penitentiary

ATLANTA, Oct. 26.—Pending the decision of the United States supreme court on the appeal of J. G. Rawlings, the state prison commission today deferred action on the petition of his sons, Jesse and Milton Rawlings, for a commutation of their death sentence to life imprisonment. Subsequently the prison commission sent to Gov. Terrell a recommendation for a further respite of thirty days in the execution of the sentence of the boys and Alf Moore, which was set for November 2.

The hearing of the appeal of J. G. Rawlings has been set for next Monday by the supreme court. The father and the sons were convicted of the murder of the two Carter children near Valdosta more than a year ago.

Attorney General Hart stated today that he would not go to Washington to argue the state's side of the appeal for a new trial for old man Rawlings on the ground that there was not a preacher on the jury which tried him. Attorney John K. Cooper will argue the case for his client, but Judge Hart will present the state's side in a brief. He declares no new question has been brought up, and he asks for the dismissal of the petition on that ground.

Notes Must Be Paid.

We call the attention of our customers to the fact that we have in bank a great many unpaid notes that are past due. We insist that they must be paid or we shall be compelled to place them in suit.

We hold also a great many gunnys notes for collection which must be paid as they fall due. They are no longer our property and we cannot carry them.

ALMA, GEORGIA

After Visiting Alma, a Prominent Naval Stores Operator Increases His Holdings.

Bloomington, Ga., Oct. 12, 1906.

Alma Land & Improvement Co.,

Gentlemen: Since going to Alma, Ga., and looking over the Company's lands, I am so well pleased with the proposition I have decided to take one more lot, which will make three for me. Please find enclosed draft to cover same.

Yours very truly,

(Signed)

L. G. OLIVER.

Georgia, put on the market by Alma Land and Improvement Company, to be opened to settlers April 1, 1907.

Alma is located in the southern part of Appling county, on the A. B. & A. R. R., 74 miles above Brunswick, in the center of the Wire Grass Belt, the finest section of the south. Distance from Baxley, Ga., 21 miles; from Douglas, Ga., 25 miles; from Blackshear, Ga., 25 miles; from Waycross, Ga., 27 miles, these being the only towns of any note in a radius of 50 miles of Alma.

Alma is situated on Big Hurricane Creek, and has the very best of drainage, the entire town having a fall of over 58 feet in less than one mile.

Alma is in the heart of a country especially adapted to the raising of both sea island and upland cotton, while all other crops are raised in great abundance.

Alma has a climate that is unsurpassed. If you want to escape the hard winters of the north and locate in a delightful climate—one that is medium the year round—come to Alma.

Alma sale includes 625 business lots and 1,175 residence lots, 57 of which are improved lots, aggregating over $30,000. These improvements consist of one brick bank building valued at $3,000; 39 cottages valued at $300 to $1,800 each; eight store houses valued at $200 to $500 each, and nine barns and warehouses valued at $100 to $400 each.

TERMS: $10 Cash and $10 per month.

Alma is to have an $8,000 school building, which will be built by Alma Land and Improvement Company and deeded to the city. All streets will be graded and 1,000 shade trees set out.

Alma is the Place if you are seeking an Investment that will yield large Dividends.

You Will, Won't You?

This is the time of the year when it is expected that people will pay their debts, big and little. At least, that is what our creditors say, and they must be correct. Most people are doing that thing and it is right that they should. We would if we could, but how can we unless you do first.

Hadn't thought of that little dollar you owe us, had you? 'Tisn't much but it would help us make the other fellow glad and would relieve us of some worry as well.

All you have waited for is this reminder, isn't it? Now that we have reminded you, you will bring us the money, won't you?

Do it today.

American labor is going to the Panama at a rapid rate. Two baseball players from Atlanta went down there the first of this week—to play ball for the amusement of the workmen.

It has been declared that no apple has yet been found that will grow as large at the bottom of a barrel as it does at the top. But the specks on the bottom apples are just as large.

Hearst said to his audience the other night: "Now, my friends, I do not believe in personalities, and if Hughes will stop telling lies about me, I will stop telling the truth about him."

Fifteen pupils were suspended from a Savannah school the day before the circus. The Thomasville Times-Enterprise says Thomasville school kids are now writing them to find out how they worked it.

The magazine business promises to flourish in Georgia this winter. Savannah promises one, under the management of Mr. Julius Nelson, and Atlanta two, one by Joel Chandler Harris and the other by Tom Watson.

The New York democrats are making big pre-election claims. They claim that Hearst's chances for winning the governorship are growing brighter every day. But would that be a democratic victory? Hearst is more socialist than democrat.

An English preacher advances a proposition to change the names of the days of the week on the ground that the present names are of heathen origin. Somehow, we have been accustomed to them so long that we rather cling to the present system. The proposition ought to go along with Roosevelt's reform spelling scheme.

Close the Drug Stores.

The recommendation of the late grand jury that the drug stores be closed on Sundays, except when actually called upon to sell drugs or fill prescriptions, will be cheerfully observed by the Statesboro druggists, who have no desire to seem to violate the laws of the state by selling other articles than drugs on the Sabbath.

The action of the grand jury should not be construed to mean that our druggists had done business in willful violation of good government. Instead, the facts are that it has been the custom to keep the doors open part of the day for the sale of drugs, and during those hours the public has fallen into the practice of calling for tobacco, cigars, cool drinks, etc.—trifles which the druggist could hardly refuse without seeming unaccommodating.

There has been little profit in the Sunday business, and our druggists will observe the suggestion to close their places on the Sabbath, recognizing the righteousness of a more strict observance of that day.

A small row is on in Savannah on account of a new political organization, the "Hebrew Democratic Club." Rabbi Solomon characterizes the club as a set of hangers-on, ghoulies who are afraid to come out in open battle, but are ready to fight for the spoils after the battle is over. The organizers of the club do not seem to appreciate the rabbi's position and they challenge his claim to represent 95 per cent. of the Hebrew population of Savannah.

Don't Fail to Vote.

The attention of democrats is again called to the congressional election, which occurs next Tuesday, November 6th.

While it is true that there is no danger of a democratic defeat, it behooves every good democrat to turn out and make the democratic majority as large as possible. The national republicans are continually threatening to cut down the representation from the South, giving as a reason the smallness of the vote by which the southern democrats are elected. They probably will never have the nerve to seriously attempt this reduction; but at the same time we can forestall their threat by turning out a good vote in these congressional elections.

Just at this time the people of the First district are to choose between two candidates—a republican and a democrat. Nothing but the rankest lethargy makes the election of the republican possible. Will we tolerate this? We think not. If you are willing to do your part toward preventing this, turn out for a few hours next Tuesday and vote for Charles G. Edwards.

A Generous Donation.

The donation of $25,000, suggested by the grand jury at its last week's session, for the procurement of the First district agricultural college for Bulloch county, is a most generous one and is to be commended. As an investment, none better could be made by the county; not that the school will pay it back in a few years, but because, when once established, the school will be a permanent institution that will advertise the county continuously and benefit the agricultural interests every day of its existence.

However, the school is not yet secured for Bulloch. There are other counties in the district who want it and they are going to give us a tussle for it. The question is, will we let them out bid us? We think not. Besides the amount advised to be appropriated by the grand jury, many private subscriptions have been made, in all amounting to about $5,000, and others are to follow. Bulloch intends to offer as much in the way of cash and land as any other county in the district, and she certainly offers more than any other in the way of location. Being exactly in the center of the district, she is equally convenient to all the other counties which would have the privileges of the school, and her railroad facilities are as good as any other place that might be considered.

Announcement.

The Thespian society held its regular session Friday, Oct. 26, 1906. After a hard fought battle between the affirmative and negative the cause was surrendered to the negative, on the resolution that "Lee was a greater man than Washington." Those on the affirmative were Thomas V. Nevils and Master John Powell. The negative were James Jones and Gordon Williams. Each displayed great oratory. John Wilson gave a nice little recitation.

The people are invited to attend the meetings of the Thespian literary society, Friday night, Nov. 2nd. The subject of the discussion is, "Resolved that women should vote."

Resolutions.

Whereas, his span of life, having been completed, our friend and comrade, Morgan Rawls, has been taken from our midst by our great Commander, Therefore, he is resolved by the J. S. Cone Camp United Confederate Veterans that this testimonial of respect and friendship be furnished to those who survive.

Morgan Rawls was born in Bulloch county, Ga., Jan. 29, 1829; was married Oct. 22, 1851, to Salvia Elkins, and died Oct. 18, 1906. Three daughters and five sons survive him.

In 1861 he was a member of the secession convention and cast his vote against secession. When this state left the Union, however, he organized a company the same year and was made captain. Afterwards he was promoted and served as lieutenant colonel of the 54th Georgia regiment. His courage and daring were known of his comrades. No braver soldier wore the gray. In 1864, at the battle of Peachtree Creek, now Grant's Park, Atlanta, he was desperately wounded.

In 1872 Morgan Rawls was elected to the national congress from the First congressional district of Georgia, and took his seat in 1873, but was afterwards unseated by that partisan republican congress. In 1868 he was elected to the general assembly of Georgia, from the county of Effingham, and for a period of thirty years he served his county and state in that body. His long service was high testimony of the esteem and confidence of those who knew him best. Be it

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, and a copy furnished the family of our deceased comrade.

$1 FOR A DIME.

Millionaire Paid That Amount to Recover Lost Coin.

ATTICA, Ind., Oct. 26.—After an absence of sixty-five years, Frank Bookwalter, a millionaire, of Springfield, O., has returned to his old home in this county. One of the first acts was to recover a silver dime that he had lost when he was five years old, just before he went away.

The dime had been given to him by his grandfather, and he was playing with it on the doorsteps. He dropped it and it fell into the crack of the stone steps. The boy's parents were poor when they went to Ohio. The boy had his own way to make and he soon developed a love for mechanics. As a young man he made those inventions that made him wealthy and now he is several times a millionaire. Last week he came back to his boyhood home.

His business and wealth had not made him forget the dime he had lost sixty-five years before and as soon as he got to the old house he offered a man $1 to get the dime.

A crowbar was brought, the stone steps was lifted from their foundations and the dime was recovered. One side of it was black but the other side was untarnished. Mr. Bookwalter said that the recovery of that dime gave him as much pleasure as had the making of several thousand.

Time to plant Seed Oats. Olliff & Smith have them.

Mr. J. C. Jones, of Metter was among the visitors to Statesboro Monday.

When you think of hard-ware, think of Raines.

Mr. R. M. Williams, the new Metter merchant, was in Statesboro on business Monday.

1,250 bushels best Texas rust-proof seed oats. J. W. Olliff Co.

The oyster supper at Glisson's cafe last Friday night was an entire success, and netted about $15 for the Institute library fund for which it was given.

Olliff & Smith have the Seed Oats for you. The seasons are good, and now is the time to plant.

Contractor O. C. Alderman began today the construction of two residences on College street, one for J. B. Rushing and the other for J. E. Parker.

If you are ready to plant your Seed Oats, come to us for your supply. OLLIFF & SMITH.

Mrs. Rhettie Kirkland, of Douglas, Ga., is visiting the families of her uncles, Messrs. B. E. and John Turner, and other relatives in Bulloch, for a few days.

Carry your cotton to the Oil Mill ginny and get the best and quickest work. No delay there.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Mathews came down from Swainsboro Sunday to visit their parents. Mr. Mathews returned in the afternoon, but Mrs. Mathews remained over for a few days.

We charge 80 cents per hundred for ginning sea island cotton and furnish bagging at cost.

BULLOCH OIL MILLS.

The Lower Lotts Creek association of the Primitive Baptist church was held last Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Ash's Branch church. Many from this part of the county attended.

All the newest and swellest in the millinery line is to be found in the store of J. W. Olliff Co.

The cotton market in Statesboro the past two days has been slightly dull, the best for sea island today being 22 cents; uplands 10 1/2. During the week as high as 26 cents has been paid for sea islands.

In ladies' gents' and children's shoes, we have a handsome line. Anybody with feet can be fitted here. J. W. Olliff Co.

The Bulloch County Baptist Association will convene next Wednesday with Olive Branch church, for a few miles from Woodburn. For the occasion the S. & S. railway has given a reduced rate, notice of which will be found in another column.

We have the best service that can be had and can give you the best sample that can be made.

BULLOCH OIL MILLS.

The big advertisement of the Alma Land and Improvement Company, on the front page of this issue, will be readily seen and should be of interest to our readers. Messrs. McKorie and Symons, the representatives of the company, are both well known in Statesboro, and are reliable gentlemen. They expect to be in Statesboro a day or two longer, and would be glad to meet those interested in their proposition at the Jackel Hotel.

Our millinery line of French hats, together with all the latest novelties in trimmings, is now complete. We invite an inspection by our lady customers. J. W. Olliff Co.

Master Smith Has Birthday.

In honor of his eight birthday, Master Horace, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Smith, entertained a large number of his young friends Monday afternoon from 3 to 5.

Besides the childish sports engaged in, the young guests were delighted with suitable refreshments, and the occasion was voted a most enjoyable one.

To our lady friends we offer a line of dress goods, trimmings and novelties that will delight and amuse. Give that department an inspection. J. W. Olliff Co.

Notice.

To the Citizens of Bulloch County: In compliance with the recent recommendation of the grand jury, I hereby call a mass-meeting of the citizens of said county to assemble in the court house at Statesboro at 11 o'clock on Tuesday, the 6th day of November next, for the purpose of making a systematic effort to secure the location of the agricultural college of the First congressional district for Bulloch county.

This Oct. 30th, 1906.

CITY LEVIES ON PROPERTY.

Execution Against J. M. Fordham for $25,000.

Under an execution for $25,000 the stock of merchandise and personal property (horses, mules and wagons) of J. M. Fordham were levied on by the city of Statesboro yesterday afternoon.

This action followed the finding of a true bill by the grand jury against Fordham last Friday for selling liquor without a license, and is in accordance with the provisions of the city charter in such matters.

As yet Fordham has had no trial on the charge of selling liquor, and the true bill is only prima facie evidence on which the city authorities are acting. Fordham declares that he will be able to establish his innocence of the charge, and his attorneys, Messrs. Deal and Lanier and J. J. E. Anderson will proceed today to recover his property under due process of law.

Our buggy and wagon line is complete. Anything you want in that line can be found in our new warehouse. J. W. Olliff Co.

$5,000 DAMAGE SUIT.

D. H. Bradley Enters Suit Against J. E. Brown for That Sum.

H. B. Strange, attorney for D. H. Bradley, has filed in the city court a suit in favor of D. H. Bradley against J. E. Brown for $5,000 for damages.

This suit grows out of the accidental shooting by Brown of Bradley at a political gathering at Stillman in the early part of the summer. The particulars were related in these columns at the time, and were about thus: A dispute arose between P. C. Richardson and J. D. Strickland in Brown's store; Brown undertook to quell the disturbance, and himself became involved in a row with Richardson, whom he attempted to shoot, the ball hitting Bradley in the thigh.

Bradley was carried to a Savannah hospital, where he was confined for thirty-odd days, and is still able to go only on crutches.

Land for Sale.

5 1/2 acres one mile from Pulaski; good farming land; one house with four bed rooms; about 12 acres in cultivation. J. P. ARKIN.

RIGDON FOR CONGRESS.

Statesboro Postmaster is Republican Nominee.

Postmaster D. B. Rigdon, of this city, is the republican nominee for congress from this district in opposition to Chas. G. Edwards, the democratic nominee. The nomination was made last week and was promptly accepted by Mr. Rigdon, who will make a short tour of the district in the brief time intervening between this and election day, Nov. 6th.

This is not Mr. Rigdon's first experience as a congressional candidate, he having been the nominee of his party two years ago; therefore defeat will not be a new sensation to him. Indeed, he realizes that the democratic strength in this district is at least three times as great as that of the republicans, and he is running only as a duty to his party and with no expectation of being elected.

In his announcement Mr. Rigdon asks for the support of the voters of the district, irrespective of party lines, and expresses the belief that, being in harmony with the present administration, he could accomplish more in two years than a democrat could in thirty.

Back on a Visit.

Mr. M. C. Turner, of Largo, Fla., is spending several weeks in Bulloch, visiting his brothers, Messrs. B. E. and John Turner and other relatives. Mr. Turner has been engaged in the orange industry in Florida for several years, but last week sold his 8-acre grove with 52 acres of unimproved land for the snug sum of $10,000.

Twenty-four years ago Mr. Turner left Bulloch county in search of relief from rheumatism, and went to Florida. Except one attack the next year he has never had a recurrence of the disease since he landed at Clearwater, and today he looks as young as he did then, and attributes his present condition to the healthfulness of that locality.

THE AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL.

Citizens to Hold Meeting Next Tuesday to Discuss Matter.

Agreeably to the suggestion of the grand jury, Ordinary Moore has called a mass-meeting of the citizens of the county to be held in the court house next Tuesday at 11 o'clock a. m. At that time it is expected to have in shape a definite plan for the procurement of the school, and invitations will be extended to the trustees appointed by the governor in the various counties of the district to be present.

A location committee, consisting of J. E. Brannen, J. H. Donaldson and J. D. Blitch, was appointed to look after that matter, they to be prepared to make a report at Tuesday's meeting, thus enabling the mass-meeting to act with greater intelligence in the offering of a site and the donation of funds.

SOME COURT SENTENCES.

Negroes Who Went Up in Last Week's Court.

John Pope, who pleaded guilty to two charges of cow stealing and begged for mercy, was given a misdemeanor sentence of twelve months in each case. Pope is 72 years of age, and it was on that account he escaped light.

Farley Young, aged about 26 years, convicted of an assault upon his 10-year-old step-daughter, was sentenced to the penitentiary for fifteen years.

Drayton Scott, convicted of murder with a recommendation to mercy, was given a sentence of ten years. The killing occurred at Warnell's still last September. Freddie Freeman was convicted of shooting at another not in his own defense and was sentenced to the county chain-gang for a period of twelve months.

Joshua Riggs Dead.

After an illness of about four weeks with Bright's disease, Mr. Joshua Riggs, residing five miles west of this city, died last Saturday, and was buried Sunday at Bethlehem church, of which he was a member.

Mr. Riggs was one of the best known farmers of Bulloch county and was highly esteemed by all who knew him.

Death of Mrs. J. B. Martin.

Mrs. John B. Martin, of Brooklet, died at her home Sunday after an illness of about six weeks with typhoid fever. The interment was at upper Black Creek Monday afternoon, and was largely attended.

The deceased was a daughter of Mr. Milenton Waters, and besides her husband and several children, leaves her father and mother and several brothers and sisters to mourn her death.

LADY WAS VEILED.

The Porter Led Her to a Negro Coach.

ATLANTA, Oct. 26.—Mrs. Howard W. Dexter, wife of a prominent Atlanta man, alleges that she was ordered by a brakeman from the ladies' coach of a Georgia Railroad train into the Jim Crow, or negro, car and will enter suit through her attorneys, Arnold & Arnold, for $15,000 alleged damages.

According to her statement she boarded the train at Stone Mountain en route for Atlanta and was heavily veiled. She claims that her negro nurse came to the train with her. It is alleged that the brakeman asked the nurse if the woman was with her. The nurse said "Yes," and it is alleged that the brakeman went up and commanded her to come with him and led her to the car described.

The suit is to be filed in the De Kalb county superior court.

A Poem for Today

THE PEBBLE AND THE ACORN

By Hannah Flagg Gould

"I am a pebble, and yield to none!" Wore the swelling words of a tiny stone. "Nor time nor season can alter me!"

I am abiding, while ages flee, The pebbles and the driving rain Have tried to soften me, long, in vain; And the tender dew has sought to melt me.

Or touch my heart; but it was not felt. "There's none that can tell about my birth. For I am as old as the big, round earth. The children of men arise, and pass out of the world, like blades of grass; And many a foot on me has trod. That's gone from earth and under the sod. I am a pebble, but who art thou, rattling along from the restless bough?"

The acorn was shocked at this rude salute. And lay, for a moment, astounded and mute. Blue never before had been so near. This gravely ball, the munition of war. And she felt, for a time, at a loss to know. How to answer a thing so coarse and low.

But to give proof of a nobler sort Than the angry look or a keen retort, At length she said, in a gentle tone: "Since it has happened that I am thrown, From the lofty element, where I grew, Down to another, so hard and new, And battle a personage so august.

Ahead, I will cover my head in dust, And quickly retire from the sight of a foe. When time, nor season, nor storm, nor sun, Nor the gentle dew, nor the grinding wheel, Has ever subdued or made to feel!"

And soon in the earth she sank away From the comfortable spot where the pebble lay.

But it was not long ere the soil was loose. By the peering head of an infant oak; And, as it arose, and its branches spread, The pebble looked up, and wondering said: "A modest Acorn! Never to tell What was folded in its simple shell! That the pride of the forest was folded up in it."

In the narrow space of its little cup, And meekly to sink in the darkness earth. Which proves that nothing could hide worth!

"And O, how many will tread on me, To come and admire the beautiful tree. Whose head is towering toward the sky. Above such a worthless thing as I? Useless and vain, a cumber-bird. I have been biding from year to year; But never, from this, shall I vaunt myself."

From the humble pebble again he heard. Till something, without me or within, Shall show the purpose for which I have been.

The pebble's eye could not forget, And it hid those words in silence yet.

CHAIRMAN MILLER SPEAKS.

Urges Democrats to Go to the Polls November 6th.

The approaching congressional election of November 6th is but the prelude to the momentous contest of 1908. During the intervening two years, the preliminary struggle between the two great parties will take place upon the floors of the two houses of congress. Party lines will be tightly drawn, party principles will be discussed, party records assailed and defended. The plan of campaigning will be mapped out on both sides.

The chief arena for this preparatory contest will be the floor of the House of Representatives. There will be assembled the popular body, its members freshly elected by the people; the brunt of the fight must be borne by our democratic representatives. There, too, will be presented and strongly urged the proposition to reduce the representation from the southern states; an issue at this juncture full of evil omen to the South.

The democratic membership of the house is largely made up from states of the South, and our representatives are constantly criticised and assailed on the ground that the number of votes by which they receive their election is not at all in proportion to the population represented. Our republican critics on the floor of the house scornfully ignore the explanation that the real size of the vote is to be ascertained from the returns of our democratic primaries. They cunningly decline to consider any vote except that cast in the regular November election; and upon these figures they base their assault upon our present representation.

It is therefore actually of more far-reaching importance to our people, that a full vote be cast in the legal election than in the party primary that precedes it. A full democratic vote cast at the coming election on November 6th will be an effective reply to the taunts of our critics and possibly end their efforts to reduce our membership in the lower house. Not only so, but it would hold up the hands and strengthen the spirit and courage of every southern man upon that floor.

Clearly then it is the duty of every loyal and faithful democrat in Georgia to go to the polls and cast his vote in the November election for our party nominees. We have a solid democratic delegation in congress, of whom any state might well be proud. Jealously guarding our rights and ever ready to defend and maintain them, our representatives are entitled to the cheering endorsement of our full party vote.

The democracy of Georgia was never in healthier condition or its rank and file more closely united. The old party, steadfast and unshaken defender through these long years, of all we hold dear, is girding its loins for the deadly grapple of 1908. If we show our strength now, it will count for much then. So, then, in behalf of our party unity and discipline, and as a fitting and inspiring prelude to the great battle of 1908, I call on every democratic voter in Georgia to put aside all else on the 6th day of November, to go to the polls and cast his vote. He surely owes this much to his state, his party, his home and himself.

A. L. MILLER, Chairman, State Dem. Ex. Com. Macon, Ga., Oct. 27, 1906.

COME MANY MILES

To Thank Col. Dillingham. Many Flock to TELL OF BENEFITS RECEIVED.

The Sale of Col. Dillingham's Plant Juice Remedies Increasing Daily.

Col. Dillingham's Plant Juice, the wonderful new remedy which is being introduced for the first time in the state, seems to be accomplishing all that has been claimed for it by the advertiser. This is proved conclusively by the number of sick people who within the past four or five weeks have been calling upon W. H. Ellis to tell him of the improvement in their condition. All the week long they come from every part of this county, and it is estimated that in the past three weeks over two hundred people have called simply to express their gratitude to Mr. Ellis and thank him. This is very unusual, and it is seldom indeed that people will take the trouble to express thanks for a medicine.

Speaking of this matter Mr. Ellis said: "To the outsider the many calls that I receive from people who have used Plant Juice and have come to tell me what it has done seems to me to be very unusual, but for the past three months I have been through this experience and therefore take it as a matter of course. A sick man or woman who has been benefitted or made well again in a comparatively short time, is the most grateful person in the world. Probably you don't know it, but about nine-tenths of the diseases with which human beings are afflicted are due primarily and fundamentally to stomach trouble. The stomach, is practically speaking, the furnace which runs the machinery of the body. Human life is supported by the food which is taken into the system, and as every bit of that food must first be prepared or digested by the stomach in such a manner that it can be turned into blood, bone, sinew, etc., the moment the stomach becomes out of order the entire system is deranged and much suffering is the result."

"The results that are accomplished by Col. Dillingham's Plant Juice seem very wonderful when you do not understand the nature of the remedy. As a matter of fact, the principal thing the remedy does is to put the stomach in good working order in a very short time, and in consequence the action of every other organ of the body is improved almost at once, and health is the result."

During the short interview Mr. Ellis was interrupted twice by people who had come to thank him. The first was Mr. C. C. Wilson. Mr. Wilson had been troubled with catarrh for a number of years. He said to Mr. Ellis: "I have taken the Plant Juice medicine for just four days, as I bought a bottle from you for a dollar Wednesday. I have had catarrh for several years, and have tried almost everything, but nothing did me any good. In these four days past I have been so much benefitted and feel so greatly improved that I have come out here to tell you what a wonderful remedy you have and to thank you for what it has done for me."

The other caller was Mrs. E. Edwards. She said: "I have had a terrible case of stomach trouble for over five years, and felt badly all the time. I was troubled with indigestion and a very bad appetite, and felt tired all the time, so that it was an effort to do my work. I have used Col. Dillingham's Plant Juice since Monday, and feel so much better that I have come to tell you about it. I have not felt so well and happy for many years, and cannot thank you enough. My husband has had catarrh for a long time, and he is also taking the medicine and feels a great deal better, although he has been taking it only a few days."

Dillingham's Plant Juice is for sale by all druggists.

SPARTA COTTON BUYER IN TOMBS.

Groover Acquitted of Charge of Poisoning—Handley Was Found Guilty on Similar Charge.

Told by the man she loved that her affection had been misplaced, Miss Nellie Webb, the pretty young daughter of Mr. Henry Webb, one of the leading farmers of Milton county, shot herself Sunday and two hours later died happily in the arms of the man whose spurning had led her to seek death.

At Irwinville Reason Hanley, 23 years old, member of a prominent family, was found guilty of poisoning his 16-year-old wife, and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. The crime was committed last March. Hanley claimed that his wife died of meningitis, but an examination revealed strychnine in the stomach. It was proved that Hanley had bought strychnine in town the day of her death.

Samuel Mandel, the cotton buyer of Sparta, Ga., who was arrested in New York upon a telegraphic request from Sparta, charging him with forgery in connection with a cotton sale, was arraigned in court Saturday and committed to the Tombs for further examination. He is charged with raising an order on the Central railroad for cotton from one bale to 201, thus obtaining about $10,000 in cash.

To compel the Macon Railway and Light Company to operate the cars of the Macon system on schedule time, as provided in the ordinance governing the street railway franchise, the city police force is now doing duty timing cars and making notes of failures to obey the law. Since the street car strike the franchise ordinance has been rigidly enforced, and for every violation the management will be haled before the recorder.

J. G. Rawlings, convicted of the murder of the Carter children in Lowndes county superior court, must hang, the verdict of the lower court being sustained by the supreme court of the United States Monday. Rawlings will be sentenced by the judge of Lowndes county court. The prison commission of Georgia will now set a day on which to hear the petitions of Jesse and Milton Rawlings, who seek commutation from capital to lifetime punishment.

G. L. Groover, the young man charged with the poisoning of Mrs. Hooks, at Summerville, several weeks ago, was acquitted of the charge upon trial last week. Groover, who was a prosperous merchant, was being sued by Hooks for $10,000 for the alienation of his wife's affections. Shortly before the date set for the hearing of the damage suit, Mrs. Hooks died upon taking a dose from a bottle labeled headache medicine, received through the mails. Hooks then had Groover arrested charged with the crime.

Wealth of the South.

BALTIMORE, NOV. 2.—In this week's issue the Manufacturers' Record estimates that the true value of real and personal property in the four Southern states at present is at least $18,000,000,000, which is nearly $2,000,000,000 more than the true value of property in the whole country in 1860, with the South's population at present 4,000,000 or 5,000,000 less than the total population of the country in 1860. Southern prosperity is reflected in the millions of dollars being spent upon industrial enterprises, in railroad construction and in municipal and private improve-

DIFFERS WITH ROOSEVELT.

Chief Justice Forbids Use of Roosevelt's Spelling.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The president is probably not bothering about it very much, because there are other things bothering him and his administration about this time, but the way Chief Justice Fuller sits down upon his "spelling reform" business is worthy of more attention than it is likely to get at this time, when the people have under consideration reforms of greater importance and the president is afraid they will make them.

A formal order has been issued that there shall be no further tampering with the decisions of the Supreme Court so far as spelling is concerned, the president's former order to the contrary notwithstanding. This came as a result of a little bout in the Supreme Court, when a prominent attorney, no less than Solicitor General Hoyt in fact, began reading from a brief, a quotation from a court decision wherein appeared the word "thru."

The grave and reverend chief justice of the United States, who held a copy of the brief in his hand, knit his brows and peered over the top rims of his spectacles.

"Does this purport to be an exact quotation from Justice Bradley's official opinion?" he asked.

"In all except the spelling," responded Mr. Hoyt. Then for the next few minutes the solicitor general took up the time of the court to explain that the Department of Justice, like all the other executive departments, had been carrying out the order of the president and that the public printer had tried to obey this too literally, undertaking to reprint from court decisions in the "simplified" spelling. He said that he realized that an exception should be made in the case of court decisions from which quotations were made, expressed regret, and so forth, and promised that he would try to see that such a thing should not occur again. The chief justice seemed assured and the argument of their counsel was heard.

And so the order was issued to the public printer that in quoting law books the spelling of law books shall be used. The president probably does not care much. Many think he's less interested in simplified spelling than in some simplified way of getting out of that rash promise not to be a candidate for the presidency again.

GILPIN BOUND OVER

Killed W. W. McDonald at Vidalia Several Weeks Ago.

VIDALIA, Ga., Nov. 3.—The criminal trial of W. J. Gilpin, for the killing of Col. W. W. McDonald was concluded today at 9 o'clock. This trial has been in progress since Thursday morning. Col. H. D. D. Twigg, of Savannah; Gus Lee, of Swainsboro; E. J. Giles, and Corbett & Lankford, of Lyons, appeared for the prosecution and Saffold & Larsen, of Swainsboro; Jones & Sparks, and J. C. Cowart, of Lyons, for the defendant.

The evidence seems to give strength to the theory that Gilpin and wife conspired to slay McDonald.

The defense offered no testimony, but Gilpin was permitted to make a statement. At the conclusion of the defendant's statement argument was begun by Col. Sparks for the defense. He was followed by Coles, Giles, Twigg, Cowart and Saffold for their respective sides. The arguments of the attorneys were pronounced good, especially were those of Coles, Saffold and Twigg, each of whom spoke more than two hours.

Judge McIntyre rendered his decision in the case by binding the defendant over for murder.

The case of Mrs. Gilpin was then taken, and by agreement she was permitted to go free to await the action of the grand jury of Toombs county. Gilpin was carried to Mt. Vernon jail today at 10 o'clock by Sheriff Scarborough.

At the close of the trial Col. Saffold appealed to the court to have Gilpin placed in the jail at Swainsboro where he, Gilpin, might have an opportunity of seeing his mother, who is now 70 years old. This matter was referred to the proper authority as Judge McIntyre had no jurisdiction.

FARMERS SELLING TOO FAST.

That is Harvie Jordan's Idea of Cotton Situation.

The principal depressing factor in the cotton market at this time is the too rapid selling of the staple by farmers and merchants. All kinds of misleading and exaggerated reports regarding the congestion of cotton at compresses and interior points are being wired all over Europe and this country for the purpose of depressing prices. It cannot be denied that the movement of the crop to market during the past thirty days has been on too extensive a scale to maintain a suitable market at profitable and satisfactory prices to the growers.

Big crop ideas have been exploded by indisputable facts. This crop will not be large enough to supply the enormous demands of the cotton trade during the next twelve months. The prices of cotton goods in all lines are weekly advancing. It is due entirely to the existence of a "bearish" speculative market, strengthened by the too rapid selling of spot cotton which is forcing down prices below a fair profitable basis. This unwarranted and illegitimate violation of the true laws of supply and demand will continue until spot holders strengthen their position by a slower movement of their cotton to market.

There is but one course to pursue at this time to bring about normal conditions. Store every bale of cotton under good and safe protection, which can be possibly held, either on the farm or in local warehouses. Higher prices are sure to be realized if the crop is marketed intelligently. The present price of cotton is too low. Every farmer in the South should resist to the last ditch the present effort to hurry down the market for purely speculative purposes. Every banker and merchant in the South should exert their utmost to assist the farmers in fighting the "bearish" speculative cotton trade.

To Talk About Ticks.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 2.—Commissioner of Agriculture Hudson will attend a meeting of the Southern Association of Agriculture Commissioners, which will meet in Jacksonville, Fla., on Nov. 19, 20 and 21.

He will discuss the investigation of the cattle tick in Georgia. Most of the subjects to be considered at the convention pertain to cattle and cotton.

MAY VISIT EUROPE

Gov. Elect Hoke Smith to Study Emigration.

WANTS BEST CLASS OF EUROPEANS

Thinks One Solution of the Race Problem is the Importation of High Class Immigrants.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 1.—His interest in immigration and his belief that its encouragement would be a step toward the solution of the race problem may lead Governor-elect Hoke Smith to take an European trip early next spring, prior to his inauguration in June. He has given the matter some consideration, but owing to the press of other affairs has reached no definite conclusion.

It has been rumored for several days that Mr. Smith would probably go abroad to study problems of government before his induction into office. When seen Wednesday afternoon Mr. Smith said he had made no definite arrangements about a European trip, but admitted that the subject of immigration to Georgia interested him a great deal.

"I have made no definite arrangements for a trip to Europe next spring, although the question of immigration to Georgia interests me greatly," said Mr. Smith in answer to a question. "We must reach the best class of European immigrants and bring them to our state. One of the steps in the solution of the race problem must be a steady stream of high class emigrants into Georgia and it will be naturally accompanied with negro migration out of Georgia."

"In those sections of the state where the white population largely predominates the negroes are more progressive and industrious, and make better citizens than they do in the sections where the negroes are in the majority. It will help them solve the negro problem to distribute them throughout the country, lessening their relative proportion in each locality to the number of whites in the locality. I would like to see within the next twelve months 500 families of European tenants distributed throughout the state, each family coming to a locality with some farmer, undertaking to furnish the family work, and see them successfully through their first year in Georgia. These people, writing back to their homes of kind treatment and of their success on Georgia soil would be the best immigration agents that the state could possibly have."

Since returning from New York, where he went shortly after his formal nomination by the Macon convention, the governor-elect has been a busy man, attending to legal matters and personal affairs. Many demands have been made upon his

TO RUN OUT SALOONS.

Valdosta to Be Dry Town After First of March.

VALDOSTA, Ga., Nov. 2.—The chances are that Valdosta will take its place among the dry towns of Georgia after the first of next March. This is the result of an ordinance passed last night by the mayor and council, revoking the license of all the saloons here, to take effect at that time. The campaign that was started here last Sunday in the churches literally swept the whisky men off their feet. The campaign has been waged night and day by ministers and laymen, women and even children. Causes have been held daily at different places in the city, prayer meetings have been held in the churches and mass meetings at night. The burden of the song has been, "Save the Homes; Down With the Saloons."

Yesterday afternoon at half past two o'clock was the time for the city council to meet, and take action in the matter, the licenses having already been issued. The meeting was held in the auditorium of the city hall, and was attended by a tremendous crowd of men and women. A petition signed by 400 voters and 2,100 women was presented to the
